

LGBT AND HUMAN RIGHT

Author's name: Ajay Kumar
DAV College Abhoar, Punjab, India
E-mail: jaatsaab58318@gmail.com

Abstract	At present, the issue of gay rights is being raised in every country. Because they are also human. Human rights are for them as well. Because every human being is a person without discrimination, every person has the right to freedom, equality, good health and life. First of all, who are we going to be, gay?
Keywords	LGBT, human Rights, gay rights, discrimination, freedom.

INTRODUCTION

In simple terms, homosexuality means that a person's respect is to be sexually attracted to the gender. Male homosexuals are called gay. While female homosexuals are called lesbian. People who are attracted to both sexes are called bisexual. In modern times, they are all combined to be called the LGBT community. These are found in every country. Their figures are not obtained in the correct form.

DUE TO HOMOSEXUALITY

The reasons for homosexuality are yet to be fully described. Somewhere people understand its mental illness. Many scientists call it the person's own choice.

HOMOSEXUAL PROBLEMS

At present, homosexuality is accepted by many countries. Laws have been enacted to protect them from problems, but in many countries they are facing many problems. It is possible that she is homosexual. No matter how good a gay person is, it is considered inferior. He is mocked by people wherever he is. He is said to be bad. Friendship with him is also considered to be inferior. When a person is found to be gay, all his reputation is found in the soil, thus he is considered inferior. Homosexuals face discrimination worldwide. The most horrific incident happened in the US. In May 2016, an unruly young man attacked a ball club in America and killed 49 people. Once in Malaysia, a Sharia court sentenced 22 and 32-year-old women to being lobbed at a public place 6 to 6 times for homosexuality and to pay 3 thousand 300 rupees. Such situations arise in many places for homosexuals. .

HOMOSEXUAL HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUE

The issue of their human rights is vigorously raised by Az Gays. They believe that they are discriminated against in terms of rights. They say that they are allowed to have children from gay marriage, child adoption, rent and womb. IVF technology is demanding rights like conception. They believe that due to non-availability of these rights, many problems have to be faced in their society. Today, in every country, they are agitating for their rights. Today all these are deprived of their rights in the 21st century.

STATUS OF RIGHTS OF GAYS IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES

The rights of homosexuals are recognized differently in different countries. Homosexuality is considered a crime in most countries of South Asia.

INDIA

In India, homosexuality was considered a crime before 2018, but the Supreme Court on 6 September 2018, while announcing the landmark verdict, abolished Article 377 of the Indian Penal Code which considered homosexuality a crime. Relationships cannot be called crimes. This was considered their right. The bench unanimously held that a part of Article 377 violates the rights of Section 14 and 21.

PAKISTAN

Homosexual relationships are a crime in Pakistan. In Pakistan, there is a provision of life imprisonment for a sexual relationship. But in 2018 a law was passed to recognize the third gender in Pakistan. Those demanding rights of gay rights in Pakistan say that it is not safe to say openly gay there.

NEPAL

Nepal implemented the new constitution in September 2015. It ensured the rights of minority communities. Earlier in 2007, homosexuality was removed from the category of crime, but in 2015, homosexuals were not allowed to marry here.

BANGLADESH

Homosexuality is considered a crime in Bangladesh. There is a provision of life imprisonment for 10 years punishment for making a gay relationship. In 2016, a man demanding the rights of two homosexuals was assassinated.

SRI LANKA

Homosexuality is also considered a crime in Sri Lanka. There is a provision for imprisonment for life from 10 years. There in 2017, the cabinet rejected the right to exclude homosexuality as a crime.

AFGHANISTAN

Homosexuality is considered a stigma in Afghanistan. One can be sent to jail for having a gay relationship there.

MYANMAR

Homosexuality is considered a crime in Myanmar. There is a provision of fine and imprisonment up to 10 years.

CHINA

Homosexuality is not considered a crime in China. In 1997, homosexuality was removed from the category of crime. Homosexuality is considered a mental illness in China. This is not a sex allowed to marry, but homosexuals are allowed to marry in Taiwan.

USA

Homosexuality is not considered a crime in America. Here you can freely say that you are gay. Harvey Bernard Milk (22 May 1930 - 27 November 1978) became the first American politician to openly admit that he was gay. He fought hard for this issue and won the election of San Francisco Board of Supervisors by making it his election campaign. Sadly, he was also murdered for the same reason. Homosexuals are not allowed in the army. Homosexuals can get married among themselves.

UNITED KINGDOM

At one time homosexuality was considered a crime in the United Kingdom. But homosexuality is not considered a crime here. He can be admitted to the army. In 2013 a law was passed allowing homosexuals to marry.

BRUNEI

Homosexuality is considered a crime in Brunei. According to Naveen Kanun, a provision has been made for stoning a homosexual to die.

Apart from these countries, there are some countries where homosexuals have the right to marry and other rights. Among them are Netherlands, Belgium, Norway, South Africa, Spain, Brazil, Argentina, Colombia, France, Denmark, Iceland, Ireland, Portugal, Canada, Sweden, Lucksburg, Uruguay, Malta, New Zealand, Germany, Finland, countries that have full rights to homosexuals. Give.

The Netherlands is the first country in the world that first granted gay marriage rights in 2001.

CONCLUSION

In the end, we can only know that homosexuals should have all the rights that heterosexuals have. Because every human right is discriminated against. It should be enforced without any distinction. Homosexuals are also human. They are then denied rights. The United Nations should urge all nations for the rights of homosexuals to give them all the rights that heterosexual people have.

REFERENCE BOOK

1. Wikipedia
2. Laws of neighboring countries of India on homosexual relations
3. Now demand for basic rights 2 September 2019,6: 07am Hindi News
4. BBC News 12 September 2013
5. Dirshthe Vision Homosexuality: Social Ethics vs. Constitutional Supremacy